RE: Organizational Charts

Dear Marianne Bellotti:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated January 3, 2019 that we received on January 28, 2019.

I am unable to send the information you requested by February 26, 2019, which is the 20 business-day period allowed by law. I apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause.

STATUTORY EXTENSION OF TIME FOR RESPONSE

The FOIA allows an additional ten-day statutory extension in certain circumstances. To complete your request, I need additional time to search for, collect, and review responsive records from other locations. We have extended the statutory response date to March 12, 2019, after which you can file suit. An administrative appeal is limited to a denial of records, so it does not apply in this situation.

REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL EXTENSION OF TIME

Unfortunately, we will still be unable to locate and consider release of the requested records by March 12, 2019. We have extended the response date to March 28, 2019, when we believe we can provide a final response.

You do not need to reply to this letter if you agree to this extension. You may wish to consider limiting the scope of your request so that we can process it more quickly. If you want to limit your request, please contact the individual named below. If we subsequently deny your request, you still have the right to file an administrative appeal.

You may file suit if you do not agree to an extension beyond the statutory period. Your suit may be filed in the U.S. District Court:

- Where you reside or have your principal place of business
- Where the records are located, or

- In the District of Columbia

You may file suit after March 12, 2019. Your complaint will be treated according to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to actions against an agency of the United States. These procedures require that the IRS be notified of the pending suit through service of process, which should be directed to:

Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Attention: CC:PA: Br 6/7
1111 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20224

The FOIA provides access to existing records. Extending the time period for responding to your request will not delay or postpone any administrative, examination, investigation or collection action.

If you would like to discuss your request, you may contact me, the FOIA Public Liaison, Phillip Hatcher at:

400 West Bay Street
M/S 4030
Jacksonville, FL 32202
904-661-3443

You may also wish to contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), the Federal FOIA Ombudsman's office, which offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. The contact information for OGIS is:
